“REACHING OUT WITH PASSION”

CELEBRATING ALTRUISM in Durham Region

LUKE'S PLACE SUPPORT AND RESOURCE CENTRE

FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

- Incorporated December 2000; opened doors 2003
- Named for Luke, a 3 ½ year old boy, murdered by his father in August 1997 during an unsupervised visit
- Non-profit, charitable organization serving abused women in Durham Region
- Provides information, specialized training provincially, nationally, internationally
- Only unique resource of this kind

SIMCOE HALL SETTLEMENT HOUSE

- FOUNDED 1935
- Non-profit, community resource centre in Oshawa, Durham Region
- Assists less advantaged children, families and vulnerable adults affected by poverty
- Provides: Food Bank, After School program, Backpack program, Sassy Seniors Club, Rummage room and Christmas Outreach program

* Simcoe Hall Settlement House has been an altruistic focus for TAU Chapter. TAU Sorority sisters, Cathy Brown and Gloria McRae, are regular volunteers. At Christmas ,TAU chapter raises impressive funds to provide gifts for a needy family*

DISCOVER DURHAM...DID YOU KNOW???

- Durham Region is located immediately east of the City of Toronto.
- The Region of Durham was established in 1974. There are 10 communities in Durham Region. TAU chapter is part of the Oshawa community.
- Parkwood, now a museum in Oshawa, built between 1915 and 1917, was the estate of Samuel R. McLaughlin, founder of GM.

- Oshawa is the home of UOIT-the University of Ontario Institute of Technology
- Historic Port Perry, the home of Paula Lishman, is just north of Oshawa....and SO much more!
